TASMANIAN BRANCH

澳中友好协会

Members and friends,

Our next meeting will be at 7.30pm on Thursday April 16 at the Migrant Resource Centre, 49 Molle Street, Hobart.

Starting with

Multicultural Tasmania

a talk by Janet Ong,
Manager, Multicultural Tasmania in the Department of Premier and Cabinet

Followed by

Chinese Cooking

a demonstration by Mrs Chia
There will be observing, learning and eating. Cost $5.

Notes

1. After last month's meeting on Chinese clothing and textiles there will be a visit to the Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery collection

As a follow-up to our March meeting on this topic, Ros Goodsell has arranged a daytime visit to the Museum's store at Rosny. The Curator of Decorative Arts will show us some of the Chinese pieces held there.

The Rosny store is just above the Rosny Park bus mall, which is above Eastlands shopping centre. There's plenty of parking.

Date: Wednesday May 13 Time: afternoon Numbers: limited to 10

Please apply to Ros either at the meeting or by phone: 6249 5027

2. Chinese painting and calligraphy exhibition in September

We have early notice of this exhibition that has been arranged by Professor Wong and the University of Hong Kong. It will show the work of Jao Tsung-i (in Wade-Giles transcription). He is a noted scholar and artist, now aged 94.

The exhibition will occupy three galleries in the Tasmanian Museum and Art Gallery.
